

Please do not change the "NO Call Law" that protects consumers in NJ against very annoying solicitation phone calls. It has been WONDERFUL not having these "sales pitch" calls. If I want something, I'll call them. It is like I remember growing up in a household that only had friends who called; not unwanted hucksters.

Thank you.